

WE NOMINATE

Alan G. Frank, one of Princeton's most community-minded and conscientious business leaders, who year after year in a variety of enterprises has translated into achievement his conviction that "it is just as important to concern yourself with the world around you as it is to concentrate on business." It is in keeping with Frank's quiet and realistic approach to what he calls "matters of moment" that, while he is 95 per cent responsible for the August 15th banquet marking the close of the Summer Recreation Program, there has been no public mention of his efforts or of his on-going assignment as Chairman of the Youth Committee of the Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce.

Entering upon his third decade as Vice-President and Treasurer-Secretary of Langrock's, the second oldest firm of its type in the country, and on the threshold of his 16th year as a full-time Princetonian, the 55-year old Frank — twice a grandfather — ranks among the most perceptive and articulate businessmen in Central New Jersey. A frequent spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations on such topics as planning, zoning, taxation, postal service and parking, he was a moving force a year ago in the establishment of the Middlesex-Somerset-Mercer Regional Study Council which is understandably concerned with the well-being of an area consisting of 21 municipalities and portions of three counties.

For the past several years Frank, the perennial but unused "patron saint" of the Midway at the annual Princeton Hospital Fete as well as a trustee of the Princeton United Fund and a director of the Middlesex-Somerset-Mercer Council, has held key, policy-making posts in his fields of special interest. He is the immediate Past President of the Princeton Rotary Club and as a former Chamber of Commerce President continues to serve on that body's long-working Executive Committee.

A native of New York City, who enjoys recalling that he was one of the first students to sample programs then being offered by an unknown Dale Carnegie, Frank started in the textile business in Manhattan and in 1935 moved on to the greener slopes of California. In the late 1930's, sensing the possibilities offered by the West Coast's burgeoning aviation industry, he enrolled in night-time technical courses, became so proficient that he qualified as an instructor in tool-making and then proceeded to spend some nine years in industry, specializing in product design and the manufacture of highly sophisticated hardware for military aircraft.

Ever since he was given the opportunity "to buy into" Langrock's Stores, Inc. (Princeton, New Haven and Providence) in 1948, Frank, an American History "buff" and an inveterate reader of dictionaries, has succeeded in combining his merchandising skills and knowledge of textiles with his love for travel. A half-dozen times in the past five years he has visited Western Europe and has used these trips to advance his second major avocation, "collecting golf courses." A golfing apostle for as long as he can remember, and the father of a former University of Pennsylvania golf captain, Frank has now played ("collected") well over 250 courses in 30 states and four European nations.

For providing the kind of enlightened leadership which is so sorely needed in business communities everywhere; for his willingness to serve whenever he feels Princeton's best interests are involved; for insisting that Princeton's distinctive qualities can be strengthened — "if we all work together," he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee as

ALICE MALE MAY RUN
Federal officials say Mrs.
Raymond F. Male doesn't come within the Hatch Act although her husband is a New Jersey state official, so she can run for Borough Council - if Princeton's Democratic Association gives her the nod.

This Is

MRS. MALE TO RUN?
Party to Decide. Mrs. Raymond F. Male can run for Borough Council on the Democratic ticket if her fellow Democrats want it that way.

Federal Civil Service officials in Washington notified Mrs. Male by letter early this week that Hatch Act provisions do not apply to her.

She had asked for Hatch Act clearance because, her husband, New Jersey's Commissioner of Labor and Industry, had been accused and cleared of Hatch Act violation seven years ago. The act prohibits partisan political activity by public officials who deal with Federal funds and Mr. Male does handle Federal money in his state job.

Mrs. Male must now obtain the endorsement of Princeton's Democrats, Nicholas J. Bartolino, president of the Princeton Democratic Association, says that Mrs. Male is "one of the strong possibilities".
Michael Pickett has also been mentioned as a Council candidate, and Mr. Bartolino says that others, whom he declined to identify, were also being considered.

The spot on the Democrats' Borough ticket opened unexpectedly when Council candidate Stephen Gladstone, Princeton University freshman crew coach, accepted a position at Harvard.

The other candidate is James Andrews, who almost won a Council seat last year.

TREES ARE IN TROUBLE
About 40 Are Felled. At a brief summer meeting of Borough Council held Tuesday night, the state of the Princeton community in August was observed from various points of view.
Councilman Alan W. Garrick and William H. Walker commented upon the number of shade trees that have fallen to disease and the ax. Both suggested that the number is so great - about 40 trees - that the Borough may have to budget special money for tree removal.

Councilman Walker, who is police commissioner, reported that crime dipped this summer but accidents climbed. He said that no cases had been sent to the Juvenile Conference Committee for two months.

The community swimming pool will be operating in the black by the end of August, reported Councilman Fred Peterson. He told Council that the pool's snack bar had been leased to Carnival Bar, and that the pool would receive 13% of gross receipts.

Council introduced an ordinance formally accepting $22,800 in Federal money for the new Borough Hall's Civil Defense quarters. The money has already been spent and the ordinance is a routine bookkeeping matter.

Mrs. Joseph R. Wood was reappointed to a second five-year term on the Princeton Housing Authority.

POST OFFICE HANGS ON
To North Harrison Site. The United States Post Office Department has signed a 20-year lease for the five acres of land near North Harrison Street that post office officials would like to use for a new post office building.

The lease calls for a payment of $3,000 a year. The lease holders of the property, is actually a renewal of a previous lease. It hinges on the outcome of Thanel's suit asking Superior Court to reverse the Princeton Township Zoning Board's denial of a special permit for a post office.

The lease call for a payment of $3,000 a year. If the court decides the land cannot be used for a post office, the lease can be dropped.

It was exactly one year ago that the Zoning Board heard and then denied Thanel's request for the special permit.
Neighbors of the site protested construction of a post office on the property, but the Township Planning Board favors the lo-

To Pave Bayard Lane

Bayard Lane, from its intersection with Nassau and Stockton, to its northern end at approximately Birch Avenue, will be re-paved this fall by the State Highway Department.

Paving will begin in October, according to a communication from the state to Borough Administrator
Robert F. Mooney. Only half of the street will be paved at a time, so that traffic will not have to detour, Mr. Mooney said.

Bayard Lane is a 1.5 to Route 206, and the state has been redoing Route 206 in sections for some time. At present, Bayard Lane has a concrete surface laid about 10 years ago. The new paving will be black top.

The paving project is an education and includes it in the new Master Plan.

FIRES ARE DISCUSSED
Between Borough, Hospital.
Procedures to be followed in the event of fires at Princeton Hospital were discussed last week at a closed meeting of Borough and hospital representatives.

After the 90 minute meeting, a joint statement was issued by Fire Commissioner Robert Hendry and hospital trustee George W. Conover stating that all points of misunderstanding have been cleared up to the complete satisfaction of all those present.

Attending for the hospital, besides Mr. Conover, were John Kaufmann, administrator; Walter Seligman and Nathaniel McKee from the hospital's administrative staff and Dr. Charles Place of the medical and dental staff.

Those representing the Borough, besides Councilman Hendry, were Mayor Henry S. Patterson, Councilman William H.
Walker, Police Chief Peter J.
McCrone, Administrator Robert
F. Mooney, Fire Chief Robert Hendry and First Assistant Fire Chief Alex Duffie.

SISLER PLANS ATTACKED
By Watersheds Association.
The Stony Brook-Millstone Watersheds Association charged this week that Kingston's proposed Sisler Garden Apartments would have an "irreversible effect on natural resource benefits" from the 75 acre tract.

In a 30-page report to Franklin Township's Mayor and Council, sponsored by the Kingston Homeowners' Association, the Watersheds Association said the proposed 840 apartments, with a shopping center and garage, "would result in a complete breakdown and loss of benefits of the natural resource functions presented."

Richard S. Thorsell, resource director of the Watersheds Association, inspected the site and found "potential" in the proposed development for causing flooding, air and water pollution, and loss of top soil and underground water supplies.

Although no map was available to show contours and drainage ways on the Siler tract, Mr. Thorrell said he had inspected a site plan which revealed more than 35 acres of the land would be covered by rooftop, parking lot, recreation area and the roadways.

These specific materials, Mr. Thorrell noted, would make rain run off quickly instead of soaking into the ground, creating "flooding potential" downstream, where the area drains into the Millstone River.

Mr. Thorrell said the wooded area which would be razed to construct the apartments is "a source of clean air to the surrounding community." He warned that the construction would contribute to the general heat of the countryside and said the "islands" of original woodland planned for the site would not survive.

Erosion of soil and water resources would also occur, Mr. Thorrell said, as the land coverings would make the land unable to "recharge" underground water supply with rain water and the loss of vegetation would wash topsoil into waterways and increase water pollution.

In a covering letter for the report, Watersheds' president Paul M. Van Wegen warned, "Those living on the Eastern seaboard should be laboring to mitigate densities of population if we are not to be destroyed by our own wastes."

Are Princeton's Schools Doing a Good Job?

"What improvements do you think are needed in the Princeton public schools and do you think the schools are generally doing a good job of preparing children for their future?"

All Princeton residents are invited to send their replies to these questions to the Friends of Princeton Public Education, 591 Lake Drive.

The replies will be discussed at the first public meeting of the Friends of Public Education, to be held Thursday, September 26, at 8:30 in the John Witherspoon School.

An advertisement in the September 5 issue of Town Topics will request the invitation.

The "Friends" were formed in the spring as a result of the two defeats of the school budget. The group hopes to provide a forum where people can exchange opinions about the schools, and as a source for proposals that might help to improve the schools.

Committees have been meeting all summer: Simon Marston is head of the committee that is drafting a constitution. George Grace, head of the finance committee, is building a dues-contribution structure. The Rev. Shelby Rooks is chairman of a Human Relations Committee. Alden Dunham heads a curriculum committee which will suggest curriculum innovations. Mrs. J. P. Cleaver is in charge of communications. Mrs. Richard Wilhelm is acting president.

The executive committee includes the persons named above, plus Mrs. Victor Bruce, Mrs. Philip Cruikshank, Robert M. Darrow, Mrs. Martin Woodward, Thomas Hartman, Raymond Hunt, Warren Huff, Mrs. Harold G. Logan, Mrs. Edwin Lotz, Mrs. Frederick Nicolai, Orlando Petrocelli, Mrs. Charles St. John and William Turnbull.

and Lane, were named this week to positions on Westminster Choir College's board of trustees.

Mr. Curtis, staff vice-president, administration, for RCA Laboratories, graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1927 with a B. S. degree in electrical engineering, followed by graduate work at four universities. He joined RCA in 1930 and has held engineering and administrative positions with the company, as well as teaching for four years at Purdue University.

The former president, in 1963-66, of the Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce and Civic Council, Mr. Curtis is also vice-president of the Princeton United Community Fund, a trustee of Princeton Hospital, and director of the New Jersey Children's Home Society, Princeton YM-YWCA Building Fund Campaign and Princeton Rotary Club.

MORE QUARRYING?

Franklin Group Protest. A citizens group has organized a protest against a Franklin Township zoning ordinance amendment which would increase the size of Franklin's industrial zone so that Kingston Trap Rock could acquire more than 55 additional acres of land for quarrying purposes.

A protest meeting, open to the public, will be held this Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Laurel Avenue School, Kingston. The ordinance is scheduled for public hearing on Tuesday, August 27, at the Franklin Township Hall in Middlebush.

Those opposed, most of whom are residents of Rocky Hill, Griggstown and Kingston, charge that the amendment would also open Franklin's Residential-Agricultural zone to such heavy industries as cement plants and truck repair depots on a wide-open "special permit" basis.

They also say that the ordinance amendment has no built-in safeguards against air pollution, excessive noise, and the like. Some residents are afraid that the new permissions could keep out light industry or research that might want to consider Franklin and they say that state Green Acres officials fear that the proposed state park along the canal and the Millstone River would be jeopardized by the expansion of the industrial zone.

Kingston Trap Rock is a non-conforming industrial use within the Residential-Agricultural zone.

The original public hearing, scheduled for last week, was postponed until August 27 at the request of the attorney for some members of the Kingston Homeowners Association.

Association members hope that Princeton Township will enter a protest to the ordinance amendment. They charge Franklin Township Council with failure to send legal notices of the ordinance to such neighboring municipalities as Montgomery Township, Princeton Township and Rocky Hill.

Hans K. Sander, chairman of the Princeton Township Planning Board, says that

IT'S A TREE HOUSE! Have you noticed 6 Moore Street lately? The little house is about to become a teenage boutique and part of the new decor is this tree. Sprouted overnight, it did.

such notification is a courtesy and not a specific legal requirement, and that Franklin's omission would not invalidate the proposed ordinance.

Mr. Sander says he doesn't think Princeton Township will have a representative at this Thursday's meeting.

TWO FIRMS ENTERED

On Witherspoon Street. Thieves hit two Witherspoon Street businesses on separate nights last week, taking $270 worth of radio and hi-fi equipment from Gordon's Radio Shop, 221 Witherspoon, and $30 in change plus auto bearings from Motor Parts Princeton, 190 Witherspoon.

Police received a report of three boys attempting to break into the radio shop around 11 p.m. Wednesday. When patrolmen Arthur Jackson and Gerald Patterson investigated, they found a window broken in the shop.

Gordon Jacobs, owner of the store, was contacted and discovered several items missing. Police searched the area and managed to recover a large radio and a speaker in a nearby driveway.

On Friday George McFarland, manager of Motor Parts, called police to report that a small window had been broken in his shop. In addition to the cash, about $24 worth of auto bearings was originally taken.

but about three-fourths were recovered.

House Entry Foiled. Jeremiah Finch, 25 Mercer Street, reported to police Friday night at 11:30 that he had surprised a man cutting the screen on his kitchen door. Mr. Finch said he was in the front of the house when he heard a noise. The man fled when he turned on the kitchen light. He described him as white with black curly hair, about six feet and wearing a grey jacket.

Mrs. Melissa Laughlin, 380 State Road, manager of the Little Heel, 199 Nassau Street, reported the theft of her wallet containing $25 from her car at 2:50 p.m. Wednesday. She told police the theft occurred when she went into a back room for a few minutes, leaving her purse up front.

WOMAN IS CHARGED

On Two Burglary Counts. A Willingboro woman, captured after a high-speed chase through part of Princeton Township, has been charged with conspiracy to commit burglary and possession of burglary tools.

Eunice Reed, 29, was released on her own recognizance by Township Magistrate Glen Miller after spending two nights in Mercer County Jail. She had been arrested Tuesday.

BLUE RIBBONS AWARDED
To Princeton Four-H Group.
A recent exhibit at the Trenton Fair Grounds won several blue ribbons for Princeton's Four-H
Fancy Bantam and Pigeon
Club, on the efforts of Mark Jeffries, Ted Valls, Brian Jeffries, Charles McWilliams and Herbert Stout, leaders of Princeton's Fancy Bird Group.

LAST CHANCE . . . !
For Summer Theatre, Bernard Shaw's witty "Arms and the Man" will conclude the 19th season for summer Intime.
This Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30, Summer Intime's cast will bow out with performances of the Shaw comedy at 8:30 p.m.
R. Edward Townley has directed Charlotte Forbes as the romantic Raina and Peter Evans as Bluntschli, the soldier who loves a chocolate cream and has rather cynical ideas about courage and the fighting man.
Tickets may be reserved by calling 452-3637.

"RAISIN" TO PLAY
For Benefit. "A Raisin in the Sun," Lorraine Hansberry's prize-winning play about the struggle of a Negro family to escape slum conditions, will be presented this Thursday at 8:45 in a benefit performance for the Human Relations Council of Greater Trenton.
The play will be given at the Theatre in the Park, Cadwallader Park, in Trenton. Tickets, at $3 and $5, with a special $1 student rate, will be available at the Theatre box-office.
Geraldine Bryan, who was featured in the Theatre-in-the-Park's production of "The Owl and the Pussycat," will star in "Raisin in the Sun" and Garrett Sunders will be featured also. Lee R. Yopp will direct.

ACTION
At Sundance, Action theatre and underground films will bring a close to the summer season of chamber music and American arts at Sundance, Upper Black Eddy, Bucks County, Pennsylvania.
This Friday, "The Gift Rite," described as a "jazz-medieval collision with the myth of life" will be presented. This is the Ken Dewey Action Theatre production which has been performed in earlier versions in San Francisco and Paris.

This Saturday and Sunday, Sundance will show its annual selection of films from the New American Cinema. Titles, selected with the assistance of James Stoller, 16mm critic of The Village Voice, include Mike Kuchar's "The Craven Sluck," Red Groom's "Ruckus Shorts" and Warren Sonbert's "Autosalvage."
Also scheduled is the newest release called "Chicago," dealing with the demonstrations planned for later in August against the Democratic convention in Chicago.
Reservations may be made by calling 215-847-5303.

PLAYHOUSE
Petulia (now playing) has all the trappings of a far-out film - realistic blood and gore, rock stars, psychedelic effects, a hippy or two on a trip - but it is quite conventional in plot and characters. Of course, there is that scene in the restaurant with topless waitresses where the two physicians go for lunch only because the stew served is good.

MILLIE, Julie Andrews is the millionaire-bonding flapper in the musical satire on the 1920's, "Thoroughly Modern Millie," held over at the RKO Brunswick.
Julie Christie is Petulia, who shakes her rich bridegroom of six months (Richard Chamberlain) in favor of a doctor, George Scott. She turns up where and when Scott least expects her outside the operating room or even when he's out with his steady date. The pace of the film is swift and jerky. There are many flashbacks and cut-ins, making the story a tough one to follow. The color is sharp and clear, which is all to the good for Christie's blue eyes. Scott, though competent, seems to fall somewhat short as a romantic lead for the mercurial and incomprehensible Petulia-Christie.

GARDEN, TRENT, PRINCE
For the Love of Ivy (now playing) is a situation comedy contrasting over-charming Poitier and luscious whites. It is the first film by Palomar Pictures International, subsidiary of American Broadcasting Company.
Abbey Lincoln is "Ivy," a maid in a Long Island household who panics the family when she announces that she is leaving to go to secretarial school. The family youngsters are a hippie played extremely well by Beau Bridges, son of actor Lloyd Bridges, and a more conventional daughter acted by Lauri Peters. They plot to acquire a boyfriend for Ivy, in hopes that will make her happy and lead her to stay on the job.
They pick Poitier, a trucking executive, who is divorced and not about to try again. Ivy and Poitier wind up in bed in this palatial Harlem duplex on -Continued On Page 8-

A LION ON THE DOOR: H.B. Lyons (right), realtor in Lawrenceville, admires the Florestone door emblazoned with heraldic lion. Ted Ubray (center) points out that this is the first decorative Florestone door sold in this area. Mr. Ubray is vice-president of Decor by Florestone. John McMahon, president, looks on. If you prefer an American eagle or a Chinese mandarin to a lion — see "New to Us."

IT'S NEW To Us

SPLENDOR ON THE WALL
Medieval? Egyptian? Florestone is a thick liquid which turns into man-made "stone" when it is poured into a mold and allowed to harden.

Removed from the mold, it gives you a splendid wall plaque or a distinctive door in almost any historical period you prefer.

You can examine Florestone at the new Decor by Florestone, Inc. studio at 167 Pennington Road, Hopewell. From Princeton, drive through Hopewell on Broad Street, the street that eventually becomes the Pennington Road. Easy to reach, pleasant spot, lots of free parking space.

Inside, you'll find wall plaques from every era in history starting with ancient Egyptian: Greek, Roman, medieval Spanish, medieval English, Tudor English, Mandarin Chinese, Early American Mayan, Aztec.

Florestone's representative is John McMahon, who is president of Decor by Florestone, Inc. His partner is Ted Ubray, vice-president of the shop. Mr. McMahon likes best the way Florestone makes a dramatic door. And a dramatic door especially well-suited to a business or professional office — wait until you see Justice with her scales and her owl, ready to become the door of a lawyer's office.

A knight in armor, almost full-size, has been done in antiqued copper against antiqued silver for another door, and just to show you the versatility of Florestone, Mr. McMahon has done the knight in reverse — antiqued silver on copper.

When we say that Mr. McMahon has "done" the knight, we mean that he pours the Florestone into the molds himself, in the basement of his Hopewell studio-showroom.

An artist and craftsman by talent and training (the former Trenton School of Industrial Arts) Mr. McMahon has an eye for subtleties color and shading, and an enthusiasm for the versatility of Florestone: it will take any color, any shade, and an enthusiasm you wish — you can have that knight in pink armor, if you like.

The viscous liquid picks up the smallest detail of line or texture. As an example, we suggest the pensive "wooden" monk. You'd swear he had been carved a thousand years ago from oak now weathered to an ancient blackish brown.

Then examine one of the Aztec calendar stones on the Florestone wall. These familiar discs have been executed by Mr. McMahon in several sizes, colors and textures so that you can see the versatility of the stone and choose the color and texture you like best. You are familiar with the intricate and detailed carving in these Aztec stones — Florestone picks out all the detail, every line. (One of the McMahon stones is more than 36 inches in diameter; other are plate-size.)

There are several Mayan designs, too, including an elaborately carved Mayan priest which has been mounted on a front door. The Mayan totem is quite dramatic, too. If you lean toward the Far — Continued on Next Page their second date. Ivy goes home to pack and move out, and finds the household in total disorder without her.

Negroes have long been bitter about their image in the theatre. Whites have come off poorly in this offering. The Negroes are competent, attractive and intelligent; the whites are the stupid, inept and dull.
There are three songs: "You Put It On Me" sung by B. B. King, a great blues singer; "My Side of the Sky," sung by Cannon Pittilli, and the title song, sung by Shirley Horn.

It's New To Us

Each of you'll like the golden dragon curving up a jade green door, or the mandarin figure against lacquer red. An other Chinese door has square designs enclosing the classic meditation.

We should emphasize that colors like "green" or "red" are shaded deeply, almost to the point of the "antique." But again, you may have almost any degree in color or shading. You prefer. The Princeton tiger, for example, can be bright orange or a sophisticated burnt-orange.

The Early American wall at Decor by Ploresone has a frieze of Pilgrims in soft copper and brass, moving through silvery trees. One display consists of American medallions by E. E. Burr, who designed the Kennedy half-dollar. You'll find ten-inch plaques of the Liberty Bell, a spinning wheel, an Indianhead penny, the profile of George Washington, and the like. There is also, of course, a wide-winged American eagle. And a platoon of Confederate soldiers.

In the Roman Department, are "stung" fragments, like the Roman legionnaire on his horse, or the charming flute player. Roman and Greek coins have been cast with exact fidelity, to make a nice wall decoration — for a bank, perhaps?

But the shop likes best those full-scale doors $135 for interior doors, $145 for the solid core outside doors.
Or, if you don't need a door, you might select the chugging steam engine and its train of cars for a train buff's den.

I'M A BRIDE!
Here's Your Gown. The bridal dressing room at the Brides Showcase in the Montgomery Center, is so designed that when the folding doors are opened back, the bride walks the length of a room toward

Got a Man?

Brides who want to sign up for gown, veil and slippers at the Loretta Young Brides Showcase, must allow at least six weeks for everything to be sewn to place.

Some of the more elaborate wedding gowns require as long as two and one-half months to complete — all those bugle beads to sew on, and sew forth — and all gowns are done on special order.

One wedding now being processed at the Brides Showcase is planned for mid-January, just to give you an idea.
Our thought for the week sign up your wedding gown and have your first fitting, and THEN start looking for a groom.

A more demure bride will want the gown with the bodice of pearl-embroidered Alençon lace, and the flaring lace Ca-vallier cuffs at the wrist.
A damask brocade gown is unadorned, except for a tulle train. This gown is cut princess style.

From the big glass showcase of accessories, the bride will choose, perhaps, the tiny tiara of pearls. Or maybe the little Dutch cap of white satin. Or the headband of iridescent beads.
Veils may be the bubble style, or perhaps silk illusion. And there are long or short lace mantillas.

Bridesmaids dresses of fall and winter, are richly colored velvets or taffetas. Our favorite is a deeply brilliant royal blue velvet with a band of blue satin at the Empire waist, and a back bow to match.
Most bridesmaids dresses have a lot of back interest, so the congregation can have something to look at while the procession moves down the aisle.

One unusual bridesmaid's gown has a dark chocolate brown taffeta skirt and a beige lace shirt top with long, cuffed sleeves. Can't you see it with russet autumn flowers?
Sample books allow bride and attendants to select colors and fabrics, and there are so many choices you'll need a computer to calculate them all.

While you're deciding, send mother over to the collection of street-length ensembles for —Continued On Page 10

The shop is a cool space of crystal, French provincial furniture, soft gold carpeting. You should make an appointment because the staff likes to allow you plenty of time to do the most exciting research of your life. (Call 921-7243. Evening appointments? Certainly.)
Gowns range from $125 to $350; veils from $25 to $150. Bridesmaids' dresses are $30 to $75; headpieces from $7.

Right now, the fall and winter wedding is on display. Gowns, with one exception, have long sleeves. Most have rather high necklines.

For a statueque beauty, there is a satin gown with a mandarin neckline. A deep, jeweled "Cleopatra" the same jeweling four inches deep around the edge of the long sleeve.

A more demure bride will want the gown with the bodice of pearl-embroidered Alençon lace, and the flaring lace Ca-vallier cuffs at the wrist.
A damask brocade gown is unadorned, except for a tulle train. This gown is cut princess style.

From the big glass showcase of accessories, the bride will choose, perhaps, the tiny tiara of pearls. Or maybe the little Dutch cap of white satin. Or the headband of iridescent beads.
Veils may be the bubble style, or perhaps silk illusion. And there are long or short lace mantillas.

Bridesmaids dresses of fall and winter, are richly colored velvets or taffetas. Our favorite is a deeply brilliant royal blue velvet with a band of blue satin at the Empire waist, and a back bow to match.
Most bridesmaids dresses have a lot of back interest, so the congregation can have something to look at while the procession moves down the aisle.

One unusual bridesmaid's gown has a dark chocolate brown taffeta skirt and a beige lace shirt top with long, cuffed sleeves. Can't you see it with russet autumn flowers?
Sample books allow bride and attendants to select colors and fabrics, and there are so many choices you'll need a computer to calculate them all.

For the 12th year in a row, Congress has failed to meet its proclaimed goal of adjourning by the end of July.

The President's nomination of Justice Abe Fortas to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren is but one of several controversial matters the Senate will seek to resolve after Labor Day. Consideration of new gun legislation and of the treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons will also come after the recess.

Faced with a budget forecast of unacceptably large deficits in 1968 and 1969, Congress finally enacted a bill to cut estimated expenditures by $6 billion and to levy a surtax on corporate and individual income taxes. For most taxpayers, the surtax will amount to 7.5 percent of the tax otherwise due on 1968 income. I supported this formula, when it was first proposed in the Senate, as unavoidable in the light of inflationary pressures at home and an attack on the dollar abroad.

Congress has already approved some important initiatives in this regard. The Civil Rights Act of 1968 is notable for its open housing provisions. New housing legislation expands on the rent supplement program to provide incentives for low-income families to acquire their own homes. I shall continue my efforts to insure that adequate funds are furnished for these and related programs.

costs of most credit transactions, should be of real value to many consumers. Congress has also ordered a study of the automobile insurance industry in the wake of sky rocketing premiums and arbitrary cancellations of policies.

Among conservation measures already approved by the Senate is one, which I was happy to co-sponsor, designating the Great Swamp area of Morris County as part of the national wilderness system. It is also gratifying to report that, in authorizing the Central Arizona project, Congress has adopted my position in opposition to the proposed construction of two dams in the Grand Canyon.

Reform proposals, by contrast, have fared badly. Proposals to revamp campaign financing laws and the electoral college system are stalled. The House has yet to act on the Legislative Reorganization Act passed by the Senate more than 16 months ago. And the Senate's new rules of ethics fall well short of the full disclosure principle that must one day prevail.

X-RAY SERVICES GROW
With Hospital Addition.
Princeton Hospital's x-ray department, now relocated in the lower level of the $3 million "J" addition, boasts new facilities for the convenience of both patients and personnel. A cobalt rotational therapy machine, used for radiation treatment of cancer and other tumors, is the most important of the new services. Set in a windowless room with thick mural-covered walls to guard against the escape of radiation, it is housed in a vault-like structure to disguise its awe-some appearance.

A ring-supported x-ray table is able to tilt the patient from horizontal to vertical positions. As the table shifts, the x-ray camera also adjusts its position to focus accurately on the patient.

Fluoroscopic examinations will use the new equipment to — Continued on Next Page allow records on film or magnetic tape, to provide for repeated viewings of still, sequential or motion pictures by the doctors involved with the radiation department. An automatic photographic processing machine in the new offices will develop x-ray films in 90 seconds.

For the administrators, an electrical powered rotary file uses pushbutton controls for references to the records of several hundred patients, with easy access to all x-ray films, which will be stored in a separate room. Increased lounge space, with a separate area filled with toy-like, small-scale furniture for children, will make visits to the new department headquarters more enjoyable.

If the new facilities attract more patients than the existing plant can handle, one solution is to go up: the new addition is to go up: the new addition's foundations, supporting two and a half stories, are strong enough to hold ten floors.

CHINESE ART PURCHASED

By Princeton University. Chinese art purchases totalling "well over $1 million" have been announced by Princeton University, including "the world's first comprehensive collection" of 17th century painter Tao-chi.

According to Dr. Wen Fong, Curator of Oriental Art at Princeton, the group of 16 works by Tao-chi, a member of the Individualist School who was a leader in the development of Chinese art, represents a step forward in the study of Far Eastern art, "beyond the picture books which scholarship has produced until recently."

Dr. Fong explained that problems of access to Oriental art and the common forgeries in the field have discouraged collectors from acquiring and studying it. "The time is now ready for Western scholarship to deal with major Far Eastern artists as individuals," he said.

Also included in the purchases, which are funded by New York Physician Arthur M. Sackler, is a group of 84 bronze pieces, spanning more than 2,000 years of Chinese artistry. Dr. Fong said the value of many of the 45 ritual vessels included in the collection may range up to $50,000 each.

Other important acquisitions include a 12-inch statue of Kuan-yin, the predecessor of the Buddhist goddess of mercy, dating from 540 A.D., and several paintings from the Ming and Ching dynasties.

ROUNDUP ATTENDED

By Princeton Girl Scout. Robin Cowen, 8 College Road, a member of Senior Girl Scout Troop 26 of the County Girl Scout Council, will return Saturday from a roundup of 335 selected girl scouts from this country and Canada.

Held at Camp Hilak, West Richfield, O., the two-week program has sought to help senior scouts to understand the role of women and to explore careers in business, education, science, health, civic affairs and politics. Entitled "After Tomorrow," the affair is providing field trips to Cleveland and nearby areas to give the scouts a chance to meet outstanding women in these fields.

Robin was selected from a large number of applicants by a national committee of Girl Scouts of America.

 To the Editor of Town Topics:
 Recently, for the umpteenth time, I have read in your paper a letter commending the head of the Animal Rescue League here in Princeton.

Our town is endowed with people who volunteer much of their time, their effort and money for many worthwhile causes: recording for the blind, fresh-air parents, canvassers for the Heart Fund, Cancer Society, March of Dimes, M.S., tutors at the Study Center, workers at the Neuro-Psychiatric Institute, volunteers for Youth Associates, Psukey, etc., etc.

The list is virtually endless, but these men, women and our youth don't collect pats on their backs. Their gratification comes from the results, and they are satisfied to feel thus rewarded.

BOYS TOUR CANADA
 On Bicycles, Ken Buckland, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckland, 312 Prospect Avenue, and Don Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fox, 28 Vandeventer Avenue, are bicycling around Canada now after peddling 450 miles in six days to reach the northern nation.
 Sophomore runners for Princeton High School's cross-country team, they are using the summer excursion as conditioning for the fall season.

enjoying the trip so much that they haven't yet made plans to come home.
 Arriving in Montreal July 29 after riding through Hyde Park, Saratoga Springs, Fort Dunderberg and a YMCA camp on Grand Isle, in the middle of Lake Champlain, they visited Expo and set off for Quebec City. When last heard from, they were heading (by train, this time) for Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The boys planned the trip themselves, with test runs for conditioning that convinced them to limit their leads to 15 pounds, carried in a water-proof bag strapped to the rear of the bicycle or on a mountain pack on the cyclist's back. They buy their food on the road and stay overnight in hostels and camps.
 Friends of the boys who are worried because they haven't yet gotten post cards may blame the Canadian post office strike. In Montreal, they were offered positions as messenger boys for Western Union.

PHARMACY BELD UP
 Bandit Gets $70. A man armed with a long-barreled gun last week held up McGrath's Pharmacy, 254 Main Street, Lawrenceville, emptying the cash register of about $70 in cash.
 Miss Carol Alden, 18, a clerk, told Lawrence Township police the man entered the store and handed her a dollar to pay for some gum. When she opened the cash register, the man pulled the gun from under a sweater and walked behind the counter.

FINAL CONCERT PLANNED
 By Community Band. George W. Sotie will lead the Princeton Community Band in its final concert of the season, Friday at 8 p.m. on the front campus of Princeton High School.
 The program will feature selections from Herold, Tchaikovsky and Rimsky-Korsakov with several marches from the band's repertoire.

BIRTHS
 Nineteen Born. Eleven girls and eight boys were born last week at Princeton Hospital.
 Daughters were born to: Mr. and Mrs. Gary Turetsky, 230 Stonehurst Boulevard, Freehold; and Mr. and Mrs. John Masteron, 314 Sked Street, Pennington, both on August 5; Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Bennett, 41 Hillview Avenue, Franklin Park, on August 6; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foote, Kingston Terrace Apts., and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Freimuth, 10 Loring Avenue, Trenton, both on August 7.

"Life in Princeton" by Svetlana Alliluyeva

Seeking to reply to an article published in a French newspaper, which described her as lonely, unable to adapt to American life and longing to return to her two children in Moscow, Svetlana Alliluyeva wrote a letter to a friend in Paris, giving her true feelings about her life in Princeton.

Published last week by The New York Times, the letter contains several passages in which Miss Alliluyeva expresses her satisfaction with her life here. They read: "In Princeton and in New York, which isn't far away, I have many friends. More Americans, I must confess, than Russians. It is easy to get on with Americans. They are kind, hospitable, straightforward people, and it's simpler and far easier for them to accept me just as a human being."

"I have many friends in Princeton, itself. If I suffer at all, it's not from loneliness but rather from an excess of invitations which I do not refuse. I am interested in meeting and getting to know people in their intimate surroundings (if only categorically refuse to appear as lecturer in colleges and universities because that is not my line).

"The college town of Princeton is full of interesting and delightful people from all over the world. I find this freedom of intercourse, of which I was deprived during my whole life in Russia, very pleasant. In Moscow for 40 years, my life is now really free, full of interest and significance for me."

Miss Alliluyeva also denied two other comments about her life contained in the article. "I do not remain every morning around the institute in which Einstein worked (though I am friends with his daughter, Margot); I can find no implements anywhere around me which would indicate a 'secret surveillance' over me by the police..."

DIVISION HEAD NAMED
By Applied Logic, Roderrick E. McMillan, 13 Cherrybrook Lane, East Windsor Township, was appointed head of Applied Logic Corporation's Computer Division last week, to direct system manufacturing, applications programming and a time-sharing computer operation at the Palmer Square firm.

Mr. McMillan, a graduate of Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., was formerly manager of the Digital/Hybrid Programming Department at the Princeton division of Electronic Associates, Inc. He served previously with General Electric and Computer Sciences.

FILM PROGRAM PLANNED
For Lloyd Terrace Residents
The Princeton Public Library

and the Princeton Housing Authority will present films to Lloyd Terrace residents next Tuesday evening at 8 in the housing project's recreation room.

The three films are "Breath of Spring," shot in British Columbia; "Explore Expo '67," from Montreal; and "Fun Factory," a look at Mack Sennett's daughter. Refreshments will be served after the program.

VOTERS MAY REGISTER

At Mobile Unit, Princeton's League of Women Voters has announced that its Mobile Registration Unit will be open from 9 p.m. next week to record registrations or changes of residence for the general election November 5, in addition to the regular hours of the local clerks' offices.

The unit will be located at the Princeton Junction Fire House 5, Tuesday, Harrison Street Fire House, Wednesday, Ship Hall, Thursday, August 22.

OPEN MEETING SET

By Sex Ed Committee. Soundings of public opinion will be taken by the Princeton Area Committee on Sex Education at a "Parent Program Planning" session at 8 p.m. next Wednesday, August 21, in the Princeton Public Library.

Ralph Bloom, committee chairman, scheduled the meeting at this time as a broad spectrum of opinion is sought before the committee completes program plans for the coming year.

Committee members, representatives of the PTO and PTA groups and interested parents in the community will explore the felt needs for sex education programs and resources in the field.

PLATFORM MEETING SET

At Wilson School, U.S. Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-N.J.) announced last week that Democratic platform hearings for the Maryland-Delaware-New Jersey region will be held Friday at Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School, beginning at 10 a.m.

Rep. Thompson and Rep. Hugh L. Carey (D-N.Y.) are leading a national effort to hold hearings before the Democratic Party's national convention in Chicago, where records of the hearings will be presented to the National Platform Committee.

Democratic congressmen from the region will preside at the hearings, to feature prepared statements and testimony on domestic and international issues.

Testifying at the Princeton meeting will be Louis Fischer, an expert on foreign policy and the Soviet Union; Fletcher Knebel, author; Ralph A. Dungan, Chancellor of the state's Department of Higher Education; Paul J. Krebs, executive director of the state's Office of Consumer Protection; Lloyd B. Wescott, president of the state Board of Control of Institutions and Agencies; Quint Tamm, executive director of the International Association of Chiefs of Police; Raymond A. Brown, of the State Commission on Civil Disorders; and Joseph Monserrat, of Puerto Rico's Migration Office.

CABLE TO BE INSTALLED

Under Hopewell Street, New Jersey Bell Telephone announced plans this week to place underground cable on West Broad Street, Hopewell, to increase Hopewell's telephone facilities and provide additional trunk line service for Princeton, Lambertville and Trenton.

Robert G. McGroarty, manager of the company's Princeton office, said the cable will run beneath the north side of West Broad Street, from Greenwood to Louellen Avenues. Completion is planned by mid-September.

We Can't Sell You A New 300-SL . . .

BUT, we did breed into the two cars below, a lot of engineering from it!

"THE MERCEDES 250 IS A REAL WINNER"

*Reports a leading Consumer Magazine, August, 1968

"The Mercedes 250 represents the best-designed compromise for all-purpose transportation that the magazine has tested in recent years. Take size. The Mercedes is only about as long as the compact Ford Falcon, and the diameter of its turning circle is four feet shorter. It therefore can be parked and maneuvered more easily. Yet the Mercedes offers its occupants more fore-and-aft room than a Cadillac. The Mercedes, like the other imported sedans tested for this report, is about a foot narrower outside than the typical full-sized U.S. sedan, about six inches narrower inside. So there may be a little less shoulder room and hip room than one might like when three adults share the back seat. But considering that the driveshaft tunnel makes almost every car somewhat less than comfortable for the man in the middle, the Mercedes' sacrifice of width seems to us of slight significance."

MERCEDES-BENZ 280-SL

"For those who value engineering finesse and high-quality construction, it's alone in the field."

*ROAD AND TRACK, AUGUST 1968

"Some cars don't change, they just get better. The Mercedes-Benz 280-SL, latest version of a line that began as the 250-SL in 1963, is the same as ever, just better."

"The primary change is a new cylinder block which raises displacement from 2496 cc to 2778 cc by a respacing of the cylinders and a concomitant bore increase from 82.0 mm to 86.5. Torque is up from 174 lb-ft at 4500 rpm to 193 at 4500, power up from 170bhp at 5600 rpm to 180 at 5700. No question about it, the 2.8-liter engine comes on strong. Up through the gears it has enough acceleration for any traffic need, and top-gear acceleration is quite good from 35 mph on. The 2.8 engine is mechanically smooth and has a nice exhaust note that, while a bit obtrusive at 45-55 mph in 4th, can be enjoyed to the hilt when revving up through the gears with the top down. Fuel economy has suffered slightly, but the 280-SL can still manage 19 mpg at "freeway" speeds and its 21.7-gal tank gives it a good cruising range."

"In matters of handling, brakes and ride the SL is still one of the outstanding cars of the day. Certainly its (optional, but recommended) power steering is the best available

The Mercedes 250's six-cylinder engine is another good compromise, in the magazine's view. The car performed on a par with most basic V8 models from Detroit. Its acceleration figures matched those of the full-sized Chevrolet Impala 1.8 the magazine reported on in January, while it provided the same fuel mileage as the compact Dodge Dart Six. When it came to ride, handling and braking, the compromises became very small. The magazine's auto testers judged the Mercedes the best-riding car overall that they have ever tested, they judged its handling excellent and the power disk brakes performed flawlessly."

The Magazine rates the Mercedes' ride a solid good under both light and full load. The luxury-car buyer might find the Cadillac Sedan de Ville even more comfortable when he's driving alone or with his wife. But the Caddy's ride deteriorated sharply when the car was fully loaded, the Mercedes' ride did not. The only other car the magazine recalled that handled as well as the Mercedes overall was the Chevrolet Corvette tested in 1966 — and that's not a family sedan."

THE MAGAZINE WOULD RECOMMEND THE MERCEDES OVER ANY U.S. SEDAN. That recommendation goes for the Mercedes 250 and 220 as well as our tested 250. The lower numbered models sell at $500 to $700 less than the 250; they are virtually identical to the 250 except that their engines develop less horsepower."

anywhere, giving the impression of just plain easy steering with no trucky about. The ride, over all sorts of roads, is fantastic. The body is absolutely rigid and rattle-free, regardless of which top is installed, and the supple suspension just works away down there without disturbing the superb poise of the SL. Our test car has one ride peculiarity — a rather severe case of "freeway hop" in which the car gets to bounding like a basketball over the slightly humped concrete pavement segments at 65-75 mph — but a staff member's 250-SL, with over 4000 miles on its odometer, has shed this habit; presumably the shocks have to be broken in. M-B's power-assisted disc brakes are a little touchy at first but not at all tricky. Panic-top capability of the 280-SL is just equal to that of the disc-drum 230-SL — an impressive 90% but fade resistance is improved and we got no fade at all in our 6-stop test (though there was slightly pulling on the 6th stop).

"The SL is perhaps the only sports car that gives a commanding driving position and view of the road. It's not a very low car, and its tall glass areas, relatively low beltline and visible corners make it one of the most maneuverable traffic cars we've ever driven in spite of its relatively large size."

This Fall, Princeton Sophomores Will Play a Waiting Game Varsity Holdovers to Fill Virtually Every Job

TOP LINEMAN: Steve Saner, 215-lb. guard, was rated the best lineman on last fall's freshman football team. There may be a place for him on this year's offensive unit.

SPORTS In Princeton

(FOOTBALL) OUTLOOK
■ Second of a series of four articles on Princeton's football prospects for 1968.

The greater the need to install sophomores, no matter how promising, in starting positions, the more a football team is likely to be in trouble. It is, accordingly, a sign of strength in Princeton's 1968 football picture that only a single member of the Class of 1971 has approximately an even chance of earning a place in the opening lineup against Rutgers.

It is not that the sophomore crop is below average — last fall, they whipped Cornell, Penn, Columbia and Yale by margins ranging from two to four touchdowns, lost to Rutgers by a p.a.t. and were outclassed only by Harvard. Rather, it is a case of unusual holdover strength in the junior and senior classes. "As indicated last week, the entire starting backfield returns intact for the first time in several years, and overall, there are only seven gaps to fill among the top 22 players who will comprise the two platoons.

For the past two years, a rash of injuries has catapulted inexperienced sophomores into starting positions before they were fully prepared. This was the case when Dan White took over at quarterback last fall for Bob Schoene, out for the season after the third game of the fall; when guard Joe Freschi was pressed into service in early November, 1966; and in mid-season last year when Mark Biros and Jim Nixon saw steady starting action as ends.

This fall, if the holdover lettermen and top varsity reserves stay whole, even the sophomores with the top potential will play largely a waiting game. Ability to bring them along slowly is the goal of every sensible coaching staff—Dick Colman and his associates will be happier about the situation this year if they do not need to use half a dozen sophomores in starting roles as was the case in the final game against Dartmouth last fall.

The Top Ten. Each Spring, freshman coach Pep McCarty names the players on the squad he is sending up to the varsity level who he feels are most likely to make a major contribution in their first year. It is a hazardous selection process — occasionally, for intangible reasons, a player who was a topflight freshman will not rise above the jayvee level until his senior year, or may drop the sport entirely.

A year ago, however, McCarty's forecast was extremely accurate. Of his top ten, ends Mark Biros and Jim Nixon, and fullback Ellis Moore were regulars before the season ended. Tackle Bob Hews, end Bill Schopf, linebacker Ron Miles and quarterback Jon Wright ranked second in their respective positions. The other three were benched by injuries—end Tom Hutchinson for most of the season, linebacker Arnie Haulberg and fullback Fred Wiechec for all of it.

By positions, these are the ten newcomers expected to make the primary contributions to the success of the 1968 varsity.

Ends: One assigned to each platoon. John Hess (6-3, 198) was the starting fullback on the freshman eleven last fall, but with Moore, Don Hazen and Wiechec, all ahead of him, has been shifted to bolster the less well-manned spot at shortside end. Speed, height, pass-catching and blocking ability are all among his assets.

There is also a shortage of manpower at defensive end, where Bud Nesbit will play. At 6-2, 205, he is strong and mobile, and versatile enough to have captained his high school teams in football, basketball and track in Bronxville, N.Y.

Tackles: The starting offensive tackle on the strong side of the freshman line last year was 200-lb. Dave Dirks. The only player at this position to be singled out among the top members of his class, Dirks appears to be a bet for the future. Two lettermen (Bruce Eckman and Bob Jakes) rank well ahead of him.

Guards: It may be symbolic of the anticipated rise in Princeton football fortunes for 1968 that the position hardest hit by graduation will be reimbursed by appearance on the scene of the player rated the best all-around lineman on last fall's freshman eleven. He is 6-3, 215-lb. Steve Saner, versatile enough to have played as a defensive tackle and offensive guard. With both Bohdan Siefkowsky and Bob Mauterstock, last year's shortside guards, no longer available, Saner comes up labelled as the sophomore "most likely to succeed" on a combination of his ability and the size of the gap for which he is best suited.

On defense, 200-lb. Brad O'Brien is similarly blessed in that he has the potential to help fill the void created by the graduation of two seniors, Captain Lee Hitchner and Mike Hollander, at middle guard. Durability and mobility are both characteristics he has shown. Unlike Saner, however, he has been switched from defensive end to help plug the gap left by Hitchner and Hollander.

Center: In other years, when the Tigers seemed consistently to groom a man for this job as a senior and then have to start all over again — Continued on Next Page at the end of the season, sophomore Bill Liddell would have had a shot at a starting berth. This fall, he'll rank behind two experienced players, in letterman Bob Siviński and his replacement, Steve Dill, who takes over for the snaps on punts and placekicks. Liddell (6-2, 210) started all the freshman games and has a solid future on his size and blocking ability.

Offensive Backs: One of the players with the greatest promise will be brought along slowly because of the depth ahead of him. Tailback Brian McCullough (6-0, 185) ran and passed with marked authority last fall, winning the Lourie Award as the outstanding freshman. However, he is likely to remain third on the depth chart behind Captain Rich Bracken and Junior Scott MacBean.

His understudy in the Class of '71, Chris Montgomery, is sufficiently versatile so that if the logjam at tailback is too great, he can run out of the three back slot or move over to the defensive backfield. His height and weight are identical to McCullough's.

Another all-around back is Pete Hauck (6-2, 185). Equipped with good speed, he was used at both wingback and cornerback last year, and can fit on either varsity platoon.

Linebackers: Last year's captain, Chris Waugh, is considered a leading candidate for a position on the defensive platoon. A sure tackler, he's 6-0, 185 and capable in a position among those which felt the attrition that graduation creates.

The early line existing ability among the varsity holdovers is sufficient so that if any sophomore other than Steve Saner at shortside guard earns a starting berth this season, it will be a major surprise.

Next Week: Tentative Lineup

NO. 3 CLINCHES PENNANT
In PBA Baseball. Engine Co. No. 3 won two games last week and lost one in the Policeman's Benevolent Association league, while Engine Co. No. 1 dropped two games to give the title to the No. 3 squad.

Mike Barron and John Mooney each won games on the mound for No. 3, as Barron struck out six in a 14-6 victory over the Elks. Money drove a triple with the bases loaded and added a single to lead the No. 3 bats.

Against Hook and Ladder, Mooney struck out 13 in a tight 2-1 decision. Brian Jeffries and Brian Smith hit key RBI doubles for the winning team. The Italian American Sportsmen's Club scored three runs in the bottom of the fifth to hand No. 3 its third defeat of the season, 5-4.

No. 1 was held to six hits by Elk hurler Glen Christianson, as the Elks capitalized on 18 walks for a 14-0 win, their fifth in a row. Christianson and Tim Moran each had three hits, while the losers' Dave Harwood was 4-for-4.

Legion Post 76's Mike Coda scattered seven hits and was backed up by solid defensive play in the 9-1 win over No. 1 that knocked the second-place team out of pennant contention. John Mittnacht provided the power for the Post, with a single, double and triple.

With several make-up games still to be played, the standings:

MISS LAPIDUS VICTOR
In Two Tennis Divisions. Princeton's Mary Lapidus will grow out of the 16-and-under age bracket in tennis tournaments, but she has no reason to worry. Miss Lapidus is already winning the 18-and-under.

In the fourth annual Trenton City Junior Championships held last week, Miss Lapidus captured the 16-and-under title and then walked off with the 18-and-under as well. Michael Gloucevitch and Steve Tobolsky earned the 14-and-under doubles title by upsetting the top-seeded pair. Thirty Princeton players entered the event.

This week, Princeton's tournament players will enter the Lehigh Valley District junior championships in Allentown, Pa. The season's final event will be the Eastern Pennsylvania for boys at Philmont Country Club, beginning Monday. All boys interested in participating in car pool arrangements for the tournament.

Have you ever thought of God as Life?

Or Principle, or Mind, or Soul, or Truth?

These are some of the synonyms that Christian Science uses to define God.

Each of them helps the individual to know God better.

The name Life, for example, shows that God is not a far-off abstract deity, but is the very source of our life. He is that close to each one of us.

If you are searching for better ideas about God, and how you may know Him better, you will enjoy reading the current Bible
Lessons in our Reading Room.

They are full of inspiring ideas.

GOVERNORS' CUP WON

At Springdale, a pair three on the 20th hole by Dean Chance won the Governor's Cup for him and his partner, Ralph All-aire, Jr., Sunday at Springdale.
The sudden death finish brought them victory over Woodrow Wising and Paul Erie. The latter team had finished the first nine 1 up but needed a rally to send the match into extra holes. On the way to the finals, Chance and Allaire had defeated Harold Dill, Oliver Houghton and Maury Mather and Dick Judge.

Member-Guest, Field. In women's play last week, a field of 68 took part in the Member-Guest Tournament.
Winning the better-half of four some event were Jane Bonthron and Peg Orr of Springdale and Jan Sullivan and Tassie of Bedenshook. They shot a net 60.

Placing second were Debbie Pierson and Mary Wenzel of Springdale and Barbara Lyle and Mary Osheim of Hopewell. They were declared the winners after matching cards with a another team to break a tie at net 61.

ACCELERATOR WINS

McGraw-Hill Loses Playoff.
The suspense created by the battle for first place between Accelerator and McGraw-Hill in the eastern division of the Business Softball League ended rather abruptly last Thursday night soon after the single playoff game got underway.
Leading, 3-1, in the second inning, Accelerator batted around, scored six runs and made the rest of the contest a ho-hum affair. By the time it was over, the winners had knocked out 18 hits good for 14 runs, while McGraw could not manage another tally.

Jack Bartow went all the way for the winners, giving up just three hits. Barry Hibbs was four for four, with a home run and a double and three RBIs. John Ruzczek slammed a three-run homer in the first.
Earlier in the week, both Accelerator and McGraw-Hill had disposed of other teams, to end regular season play with 11-3 records. Accelerator downed RCA Labs B, 6-3, with Barlow again earning credit for the win. RCA jumped out to a brief lead in the top of the second, but Accelerator answered with four in its half.

ACCURACY AN ASSET: Mrs. Elaine Cook (left) made a hole in one at Springdale last week, sinking her five-iron tee shot on the 135-yard second hole. She has also aseed the 15th. Mrs. Nancy Ransome of Riverton (wife of one-time Princeton football star Ernie Ransome) won a "nearest-to-the-pin" contest with a shot eight feet away on the 15th.

The big blow was a three-run homer by Darrel Dohin. In against RCA Labs B. Accelerator facing Columbian Carbon;
the final frame, the winners RCA Labs A meeting Dow knocked out a small rally that Jones and RCA Astor playing netted RCA one run. Ed Krei-ERC.
gor had two hits in three times at bat for the losers. McGraw-Hill wallowed EMR, 18-2, in its final game to force the playoff.
In the western division, RCA
Aston won its 12th game against only two losses, but had to settle for second place as RCA Labs A won its 13th, heating FMC, 6-3. Pat Doherty gave up only six runs on nine hits to the slugging RCA Labs
A team, but FMC could manage only three runs and seven hits off winning hurler Wally Reichert.

Reg Bentivoglio and Ron Infant each had two hits. Bentivoglio Reichert helped himself with a four bagger. Jerry Miglacci and Bill Smith went two for three for the losers.

Astro had to battle a little harder to knock off Dow Jones, 6-5. Although unhit, 10-6, the winners managed five runs early in the game and maintained a slim lead. The winning run came across in the sixth on a single by Herb Spain. Dow Jones threatened in the top of the seventh but two sharp fielding plays squashed the rally.

In other final games, Columbian Carbon handed ORC its 16th loss, 21-14; Cyanamid dropped ERC, 7-5; ETS won its first game of the campaign, 22-9, over Hopewell TV; and NCA was handed a 7-0 triumph when Shell Chemical forfeited the contest.

Playoffs for the league championship began Tuesday evening and will continue this week, with McGraw Hill paired

RED, NAVY WIN

In Summer Lacrosse, Red defeated Green and Navy nipped Blue in games in the Summer Lacrosse League last week.

In Red's 5-1 triumph Phil Allen scored three times, Gordon Hart and Bob Fine once. Joe Perre had the lone Green goal. Dave Leete had a pair of tallies to lead Navy with Dave Liederman and Hart scored each netting one. The Blue scoring was split between Phil Lampen, Matt Alexander and Bob Pansy.

In a Sunday contest against Fairlawn, Princeton came out on the short end of a 5-3 count.
Leete, Allen and Hart scored.
The season ends Thursday.

New Of The CHURCHES

TO HEAR REV. DALEY M Uman Service. The summer union services of the three Princeton Presbyterian churches move to Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church this Sunday. The Rev. Eliot Day of First Presbyterian will preach at the 9:30 and 10 a.m. services. His topic is "Doing What's Right."

Mrs. T. Morgan Harris, organist-director at Witherspoon is in charge of music. Howard J. Wawro, Jr., is the interim chairman and T. Morgan Harris is in charge of ushers.

DR. HOPKINS TO PREACH Uppsalia Music Scheduled. Dr. C. Howard Hopkins, who has recently returned from the Fourth Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Uruguay, will lead the 10 a.m. service Sunday in Calvary Baptist Church. His topic is "Music and Message."

Dr. Hopkins, a Princeton Junction resident and member of the faculty at Rider College, attended the fourth assembly as designated biographer of John R. Mott, the moving figure behind the formation of the World Council.

He will include in the service a tape recording of music composed by the Fourth Assembly, first heard at the opening service in the Uppsalia Cathedral.

GROUNDBREAKING HELD

For New St. Anthony's. The Rev. William J. Haughey, pastor, officiated Sunday afternoon at the groundbreaking for a new, 800-seat church for St. Anthony of Padua Parish, Hightstown.

The masonry church, designed by Leo Mahoney of Princeton, will rise on Franklin Street property opposite the present frame church. The sanctuary will feature a semi-circular plan. Seating will have no seat is more than 64 feet from the altar.

Plans also include an addition to the parish hall to house seven meeting rooms for Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes and parish meetings.

BULLETIN NOTES

Attendance at the vacation Bible schools held this summer increased noticeably over last year, the most recent figure coming from Princeton Church of Christ. Its summer classes averaged 270 attendees daily, plus 20 teachers. Last year 203 attended.

The church scheduled three buses, bringing youngsters from as far as Plainsboro and Kendall Park to the Littlebrook School, where 16 classes were held daily.

"God's Stubborn Love" is the title of the Rev. H. Dana Freeman's sermon at 9:30 this Sunday in Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church. Infant and toddler care is provided during the service.

SEVEN MORE QUALIFY

For Swimming Olympics. Princeton will have 28 individual swimmers and nine relay teams in competition Saturday and Sunday at the New Jersey Junior Olympic Championships. Seven more Princeton youths qualified for the finals in a meet at Ramsey last week.

Dee-Dee O'Hara placed third in the 100-meter freestyle for girls 10-and-under, in 1:24.4, while the Belmont 10-and-under free relay team of Andy O'Hara, Bob Hoedemaker, Mike McKenna and Greg Simmons placed fifth with a time of 2:36.4.

Three in the boys 12-and-under free relay were Chuck Heller, Andy Bolster, Dave Mancini and Mike Roock, in 2:12.1. Bolster also swam the 50-meter freestyle in 32.5 to make the final round of six.

Other Princeton swimmers at the Ramsey meet were Pat McKenna, Kris Reeves, Carol Wagner, Rica Pearson and Margaret Martin. Saturday's finals at Lake Mohawk will feature the girls' individual events and the boys' relays, with the finals in the boys' individual events and the girls' relays set for Sunday at Livingston.

Hall of Fame Swimming. Bill Crell, Mike Martin, Carrie Bolster and Jane Fremont placed in the finals of last week's events for senior swimmers, led by Miss Fremont, who finished second in the 100-meter freestyle, while competing for the New Jersey Senior Women's Championship at Ramsey.

At the third annual Hall of Fame meet at Fayson Lakes, Crell placed second in the 200-meter breaststroke, in 2:58.6, while Martin with a time of 3:02.9, was fifth. Miss Bolster missed a turn in the finals of the 200-meter freestyle for women at Ramsey to place fifth.

TOURNAMENT PLAY SET

For Motor Lodge All-Stars. Play in the National PBA Baseball Tournament will begin this Thursday for the Princeton Motor Lodge All-Stars. The team meets Elizabeth at 8 p.m. on the Trenton PAL. Betts Avenue field.

The Motor Lodge squad, composed of the top players from the Princeton PBA League, is entering the tournament for the fourth time. A year ago it reached the semifinals, scoring victories over

Eagle-Giant Tickets

New York Giant fans, who think that Allie Sherman's team can go all the way this year on the basis of the 15-14 victory over the Green Bay Packers Saturday, can still obtain good tickets for the Jaycee Football Classic in Palmer Stadium Saturday, September 7. The Philadelphia Eagles will provide the opposition.

Many tickets in good locations are still available in the $5.50 and $3.50 price categories, according to game chairman Albert Waxman. He commented that many fans buy seats in the end zone each year, convinced that these give them the best view of the field.

Those wanting tickets should go to Dorotha House, 120 John Street, (the Jaycee office is in the basement) or write to Jaycee Football Classic, P.O. Box 462, Princeton.

Levittown, Pa., and New Hyde Park, N. Y.

Those on the team include: John Mooney and Jamie Petrone from Engle Co. No. 3; Brian Smith, Steve Kopp and Jack Buyer of Hook & Ladder; Pat Kolby of Italian-American Sportsmen; Dave Harwood, Ron Campbell, Larry Howell and Bob Seigle of Engle Co. No. 1; Maurio DeVincenzo and Peter Soderman of Post 76; Steve Howell of Roma Eternal; George Reynolds and Edna Volz of the Eagles and Greg Christensen of the Elks.

Craig Wood of Roma Eternal, Ted Kopp of Hook & Ladder and Bob Daniels of No. 1 will coach the team. Betts Avenue may be reached by turning right on to Princeton Avenue at the traffic light on Route 26 (a block before the Brunswick Circle) and taking the second right. The field is at the end of the street.

WHERE?

WHERE ELSE

but at Country Antiques you find:
Steel pen drawing of a spirited horse (we believe it to be true folk art, remembering several in the Abbey Adolph Rookfeeler Museum, 20 Williamsburg).

An early oil painting of fruit, well painted, but no signature.
A large and well-constructed doll house which unbooks and fits into a seaman's chest, obviously the work of some father on a long voyage.

A rare book — The National Southerner, 1948 "Embellished with 25 Splendid Engravings. Illustrative of the American Victories in Mexico."
A comprehensive collection of doll house furniture, beds, basic pieces and a few miniatures. High spots are a French papier mache set, marble top dressers and washstands.

Don't wait till Christmas!

The GREATEST . . . BEST . . . FASTEST

. . . How many times have you seen and heard these words in ads selling service . . . We admit, we've used them ourselves. But we have found that you can't sell a service with superlatives! We simply say that we think our TV Repair Service is merely better than adequate . . . it's only GOOD.

We have trained, competent technicians with years of experience in their profession to back that statement.

And most of all, we have many satisfied customers . . . which is, after all, our ultimate goal!

Do us a service . . . call 921-8500 today so that we may serve you!

NEAR THE LAKE

... and with central air-conditioning too! On a high lot with many lovely shade trees, this fine home will appeal to people who appreciate perfection. The living room, with its high ceiling, comfortable fireplace and the opulent wall-to-wall carpeting, has a balcony leading into 3 bedrooms (one, extra large, for it was planned to be two) and two baths. The dining room is very spacious, and the very modern kitchen has plenty of room and bath. Two-car attached garage. In the attic, a darkroom and lots of storage space. Outdoors: a large swimming pool in a completely fenced yard, beautifully landscaped. All in all, a wonderful home, in a excellent condition. (*) $149,500

SIX BEDROOMS

... just a year ago, this family with seven children found a century-old farm house on an acre, with great old shade trees, only 5 minutes from the junction. Completely restored after the manner of Colonial Williamsburg, the house has a spacious center hall with a wide staircase that instantly reveals the fact no expense was spared during its construction, or its restoration. To the right is a very large living room with fireplace. To the left, a dining room big enough for twelve, a breakfast room, a modern kitchen with stainless steel sink, electric dishwasher, new Formica counter tops, a walk-in pantry, and a full bathroom (brand new) which can be a powder room for guests, or where the children can wash up as soon as they enter the house. Downstairs, the ceilings are high. In stairs, there are 6 bedrooms and 2 more brand new bedrooms. In the attic three huge cedar closets. Brand new air-conditioners cool both floors. (All equipment, and draperies, included in the sale.) (*) $65,000

COUNTRY HOME

... on 3 acres with an exhilarating view of rolling landscape, this house dates back to the Revolution. Charming restored, the older part has foyer, powder room, large living room paneled in oak, a new wing also paneled in pine and with its own fireplace. Upstairs, master bedroom with fireplace, 2 other bedrooms and 2 baths. 2-car garage with apartment above. Part of the property consists of an adjoining one-acre wooded lot which could be sold off quickly, yet without altering the rural character and privacy of the remaining 2 acres where this little old Colonial gem sparkles in its country setting. (*) $49,500

NELSON RIDGE

... in this lovely area, which is still rural in character yet is only a few minutes from the center of Princeton, this inn, low white one-story home offers a great deal to people interested in large living areas for entertainment ... or work. The house has foyer, living room, large dining room, modern kitchen, and a vast family room with wall-to-wall carpeting. Both the den and the screened breezeway have fireplaces. Master bedroom with dressing room and bath. 2 small bedrooms and bath adjoining the den, which could also be a study room for children. Game room in basement. 1 1/2 acres of land. (*) $55,000

RIVERSIDE

... this fine home, located in one of Princeton's most admired neighborhoods, is in mint condition. Entry hall, living room with wicker and disposal (and a good-sized breakfast area), study - or 4th bedroom - and bath. Spacious family room with an exit to the patio. Upstairs: 3 more bedrooms and 2 very large tiled baths. Exterior has been freshly painted. In winter, three thermostats provide very flexible heating. In Summer, a huge attic fan and many fine shade trees make this a very comfortable residence (*) $57,500

(*) Many more fine homes in Princeton and vicinity in every price range. Ample parking space for our clients.

FOR THE PARTICULAR PERSON WANTING A SPECTACULAR SETTING: a 2 1/2 acre tract with brook in Pennington; a good buy for the person with imagination. $10,500. THESE ARE MANY PRETTY SPOTS IN CENTRAL JERSEY, but this nearby 3 acre tract is a picturesque location as you will find anywhere. When you gaze out over the valley, it is hard to believe you are only 6 miles from Princeton. There is a 2 bedroom rancher that could be enhanced or touched up. $31,000. SOMEONE LOOKING FOR A TRACT TO KEEP A FEW HORSES: 13 acres of ground with a fairly rebuilt house. More to be done but a good project. $30,000. Civil War school house and 2 1/2 acres of wild ground. $7,500. A trailer with 3 acres of wood way up in the mountains. Very rugged. $400. A unique "timber out of the woods" house, with 81 acres of nice trees. Needs a well and among other things but it is high up on the mountain and would be a bargain for the right party $5500. LAND See us, we have some acreage that can be cut up or bought in large parcels. SPECIAL FOR CONTRACTORS OR INVESTORS: 10 acres of top land for homes at the corner of Federal City and Bull Run Roads, Hopewell Township. Take a look at this choice tract around the new church. This office is sole agent and will supply details on inquiry. JOHN O.
